ABOUT ORGANISERS:

The National Institute of Oceanography (NIO)

The NIO with its headquarters at Dona Paula, Goa, and regional centers at Kochi, Mumbai and Visakhapatnam, is one of the 38 constituent laboratories of the Council of Scientific & Industrial Research (CSIR), New Delhi. NIO was established on 1 January 1966 following the International Indian Ocean Expedition (IIOE) in early 1960s. The institute has grown today into a large oceanographic laboratory of international repute. The focus of research has been on observing and understanding the special oceanographic features that the North Indian basin offers. The inferences from this research have been reported in about 5000 research articles so far. In addition to basic research, the institute also carries out applied research sponsored by the industry. These studies include oceanographic data collection, environmental impact assessment, and modeling to predict environmental impact. The institute also provides consultancy on a number of issues including marine environmental protection and coastal zone regulations. www.nio.org

Goa Chamber of Commerce & Industry (GCCCI)

The GCCCI is Goa's premier non-profit business, support-services and networking organisation. It represent and liasion with SME's, Corporate Organisations and Government bodies. At the GCCCI they need to evolve a strong mission to focus the efforts to work towards vision of a sustainable and prosperous Goa. GCCCI has a vision of developing Goa's business to enable the building of a sustainable Goa.

The aims and objectives of the GCCCI is to encourage and promote a friendly feeling and unanimity among businessmen and industrialists on all subjects involving their common good and in general, interests of the state and the country; to promote and protect interests of trade, commerce, and industry; to collect and circulate information and statistics on various matters of general, commercial and industrial interest; to obtain the removal of all acknowledged grievances affecting mercantile and industrial interests, as far a possible; to deal suitably with legislative and other measures affecting the business and industry; to communicate with government and other public authorities, with similar associations in other places and with individuals on all subjects of general mercantile and industrial interests; to arbitrate in the settlement of disputes arising out of commercial transactions; and to co-operate with any other association with similar objectives and exchange relevant information. www.goachamber.org

The International Centre, Goa (ICG)

The ICG was founded in June 1987 under the Societies Registration Act (1860) “to promote understanding and amity between parts of the country and with different communities of the world” through a multiplicity of activities. The Centre is an autonomous institution and provides a neutral platform to discuss and deliberate on issues concerning the international, national and local communities. It relies on grants and donations from local and international institutions to fund its programmes. Residential and non-residential conferences, seminars and training programmes are organized by local, national and international organizations. The Centre also has 42 guest rooms, 3 state-of-the-art seminar halls, a multi-purpose hall, a multi-cuisine restaurant, and several lawns of different sizes that are used for private functions, which could range from small get-togethers to elaborate parties. The ICG's facilities are located on 14 acres of land on the Taleigao Plateau at Dona Paula, Goa. The plateau overlooks the confluence of the famous Zuari River and Arabian Sea. www.internationalcentregoa.com
