

Anuradha Das Mathur to deliver lecture on Women, education and work at ICG on Saturday 9th September

The International Centre Goa is organising a lecture on “Women, education and work: Plugging public policy gaps” by Anuradha Das Mathur, Founding Dean, The Vedica Scholars Programme for Women, New Delhi. This programme will be held at 11.00 am – 12.30 pm on Saturday 9th September 2017 at The International Centre Goa, Dona Paula. Entry to the programme is free and open to general public. Those interested in attending may kindly email their registrations to pro@incentgoa.com

Anuradha Das Mathur is the founding dean of The Vedica Scholars Programme for Women (New Delhi), an 18-month residential program in management practice for young women. She is committed to bringing more women into the workplace and ensuring their dignity through financial independence. Anuradha is also a senior advisor to the Albright Stonebridge Group and founder director at 9.9 Media, India’s fastest growing niche media company. Before that, she led Business World magazine and worked for 12 years with the Economist Intelligence Unit’s Indian affiliate. In 2014, she set up the Foundation for Working Women. In December 2015, Anuradha was recognized as one of 100 Women Achievers by the Government of India; and in 2016, she was selected as a Maurice R. Greenberg World Fellow, Yale University. Anuradha holds a BA (Honors) degree in economics from Lady Shriram College, Delhi University, and an MA in economics from Cambridge University, England.

Ends

For further information about ICG programmes, log onto: www.internationalcentregoa.com